

Photography and video consent form

The BSAC safeguarding policy does not permit photographs or filming of young people, aged under 18, to be taken without the consent of the parents or guardian.

We will take all reasonable measures to ensure these images are used solely for the purposes for which they are intended. If you become aware that these images are being used inappropriately, you should inform either the Welfare Officer at the club immediately or contact BSAC HQ below.

I consent to the photographing, filming or videoing
