ARTICLES

PART 1

INTERPRETATION AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Defined terms

1.

In the articles, unless the context requires otherwise:

“Articles” means the company’s Articles of association;

The act “bankruptcy” includes individual insolvency proceedings in a jurisdiction other than England and Wales or Northern Ireland which have an effect similar to that of bankruptcy;

“Chair” has the meaning given in Article 83(A); “Chair of the meeting” has (subject to Article 57(2)) the meaning given in Article 16;

“Companies Acts” and “the Act” means the Companies Acts (as defined in section 2 of the Companies Act 2006) and any statutory amendment or re-enactment thereof, in so far as they apply to the company;

“council” means the board of directors of BSAC;

“director” means a director of the company, and includes any person occupying the position of director, by whatever name called;

“disciplinary committee” has the meaning given in Article 41(C);

“document” includes, unless otherwise specified, any document sent or supplied in electronic form;

“electronic form” has the meaning given in section 1168 of the Companies Act 2006, and any statutory amendment or re-enactment thereof.;

“member” has the meaning given in section 112 of the Companies Act 2006 and any statutory amendment or re-enactment thereof;

“the office” means the registered office of the company;

“officers” are the Chair, the Vice Chair, the Secretary, the Treasurer and the National Diving Officer;

“ordinary resolution” has the meaning given in section 282 of the Companies Act 2006, and any statutory amendment or re-enactment thereof;

“participate”, in relation to a directors’ meeting, has the meaning given in Article 14 Participation in directors meetings;

“proxy notice” has the meaning given in Article 64;

“Secretary” means the honorary secretary as defined in Article 72 and 83(B);

“writing” means the representation or reproduction of words, symbols or other information in a visible form by any method or combination of methods, whether sent or supplied in electronic form or otherwise;

Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa and words importing a gender include every gender.

“accounting reference period (ARP)” is a more precise term for a financial year. The ARP ends on the accounting reference date (ARD) or within seven days either side of the ARD, which is 31st December;

Unless the context otherwise requires, other words or expressions contained in these Articles bear the same meaning as in the Companies Act 2006 as in force on the date when these Articles become binding on the company.

Liability of members

The liability of each member is limited to £1, being the amount that each member undertakes to contribute to the assets of the company in the event of its being wound up while he is a member or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for—

- (A) payment of the company’s debts and liabilities contracted before he ceases to be a member,
- (B) payment of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and
- (C) adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

PART 2

DIRECTORS AND COUNCIL

Management of BSAC

3.

The Management of BSAC's affairs shall be vested in a Council comprising not fewer than fourteen and not more than twenty persons elected together with any persons appointed or co-opted in accordance with the provisions of these Articles.

Structure of Council

(A) The Council shall consist of:

(1) Five elected Officers namely the Chair and Vice-Chair and Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer and National Diving Officer who shall all be entitled to vote.

(2) Not fewer than nine and not more than fifteen other elected Members who shall all be entitled to vote.

(3) Such Honorary Members of Council as may be appointed of whom only the Patron and the President shall be entitled to vote.

(4) Members co-opted under the provisions of these Articles (those co-opted under Article 26 not being entitled to vote).

(5) Those persons who are Members of Council in accordance with Article 27(B)(2).

(B) Subject to Article 4(C):

(1) no person shall be elected National Diving Officer unless at the time of such election such person holds the qualification of BSAC National Instructor;

(2) no person shall be elected Honorary Treasurer unless at the time of such election such person is a member of one or more of the bodies set out in the Companies Act 2006 or otherwise demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Council that he has the appropriate financial/accounting experience and expertise to enable him properly to discharge the functions of Honorary Treasurer of BSAC.

(C) In the event that upon any election held to appoint a person to either of the office of National Diving Officer or Honorary Treasurer, no person meeting the requirements of Article 4(B)(1) (in the case of National Diving Officer) or 4(B)(2) (in the case of Honorary Treasurer) shall be willing to stand for election, the existing Council (as comprised prior to such election) may (subject to any restrictions contained in Article (25) appoint any person (being a member of BSAC) to the Office in question, any such appointment to be for such period, and upon such terms, as Council (as so comprised) may determine. In the event that, pursuant to this Article 4(C), any person is appointed National Diving Officer or Honorary Treasurer for a period expiring prior to the date upon which the next succeeding election of Officers is to occur pursuant to these Articles, Council shall at the relevant time make such arrangements as it shall consider appropriate for an election of the relevant Officer, or a further appointment by Council of such Officer, to serve as from the expiry of such period until the date upon which the next succeeding election of Officers and members of Council is to occur pursuant to these Articles (or such earlier date as Council may specify). Any National Diving Officer or Honorary Treasurer appointed pursuant to this Article 4(C) shall be entitled to vote in the same manner as if elected.

President, Vice-president and Patron

The appointment of a President, Vice-Presidents, Life Vice -Presidents and a Patron as provided for in Article 7(A)(6) shall be by a 2:1 majority of the voting Members of Council. The appointment shall be for a term of not more than three years. The Patron and the President shall be voting members of the Council and shall be eligible for re-appointment. Vice-Presidents shall be non-voting members of Council and shall be eligible for re-appointment. Life Vice-Presidents shall be non-voting members of Council

DIRECTORS' POWERS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

(A) Subject to the Articles, the directors are responsible for the management of the company's business, for which purpose they may exercise all the powers of the company.

(B) All acts bona fide done by any member of Council shall be valid notwithstanding that it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of such person or that he was disqualified.

Council's authority

7.

(A) Without derogation from the general powers of management and the particular powers conferred upon it by these Articles Council shall have power:

(1) To promulgate amend revise and amplify such advice not being inconsistent with these Articles as it may consider necessary or desirable in connection with the conduct of the activities of members of BSAC the maintenance of the highest standards of safety in all underwater activities or other matters within the scope of the objects of BSAC. A copy of such advice shall be available for inspection at the Office.

(2) Generally to exercise all such powers of BSAC and to do on behalf of BSAC all such acts as may be exercised or done by BSAC and are not by the Act or by these Articles required to be exercised or done by BSAC in General Meeting or are inconsistent with the Act or with the provisions of these Articles.

(3) To hold meetings at such times and in such places as it may think fit and not less than once in each quarter.

(4) To appoint, fix the remuneration of, and dismiss paid staff of BSAC.

(5) To appoint, determine the terms of reference of and dissolve such committees, sub-committees and working groups as it may think fit under the terms of Article 9.

(6) To appoint a President, Vice Presidents, Life Vice-Presidents and a Patron.

(7) To create such classes of Membership of BSAC carrying such rights and being subject to such restrictions and eligibility criteria, as it may think fit.

(8) To suspend or terminate the membership of a member in accordance with these Articles and any disciplinary policy adopted by Council from time to time.

(B) The Members of Council may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body provided that if the number of members of Council shall at any time be reduced below the limit prescribed by Article 4 they shall act as the Council only to admit persons to membership of BSAC, fill vacancies in Council or to convene a General Meeting and for no other purpose.

(C)(1) Council may establish or permit to be established Branches of BSAC with such conditions attached to the said Branches as Council may determine from time to time. A full current list of such branches may be obtained from the Secretary by application to the registered office.

(2) A Branch other than a Youth Branch shall not normally be established unless it shall consist of eight voting members of BSAC. If the number of voting members in such a Branch shall fall below eight and remain so for a year the Branch will if Council so directs be dissolved.

(3) Only members of BSAC shall be members of Branches of BSAC.

(4) A Branch may make rules and bye-laws for the conduct of its own internal affairs but such rules and bye-laws shall not be contrary or inconsistent with these Articles of Association.

(5) A Branch shall not be entitled to be indemnified by BSAC against any liability which the Branch may incur.

Members' reserve power

(1) The members may, by special resolution, direct the directors to take, or refrain from taking, specified action.

(2) No such special resolution invalidates anything which the directors have done before the passing of the resolution.

Directors/Council may delegate

(1) Subject to the Articles, the directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under the Articles:

(A) to such person or committee;

(B) by such means (including by power of attorney);

(C) to such an extent;

(D) in relation to such matters or territories; and

(E) on such terms and conditions; as they think fit (including whether or not any resolution of or action by such person or committee shall bind Council or BSAC until ratified by Council).

(2) If the directors so specify, any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the directors' powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

(3) The directors may revoke any delegation in whole or part, or alter its terms and conditions.

(4) Members of any such committees shall be subject to annual re-appointment by the directors.

DECISION-MAKING BY DIRECTORS

Directors to take decisions collectively

10.

Intentionally blank.

11.

The general rule about decision-making by directors is that any decision of the directors must be either a majority decision at a meeting or a decision taken in accordance with Article 8.

Unanimous decisions

12.

(1) A decision of the directors is taken in accordance with this Article when all eligible directors indicate to each other by any means that they share a common view on a matter.

(2) Such a decision may take the form of a resolution in writing, copies of which have been signed by each eligible director or to which each eligible director has otherwise indicated agreement in writing.

(3) References in this Article to eligible directors are to directors who would have been entitled to vote on the matter had it been proposed as a resolution at a directors' meeting.

(4) A decision may not be taken in accordance with this Article if the eligible directors would not have formed a quorum at such a meeting.

Calling a Council meeting

13.

(1) A meeting of Council may be summoned by a written notice to that effect signed by at least six members of Council and delivered to the registered office addressed to the Honorary Secretary.

(2) Notice of any Council meeting must indicate—

(A) its proposed date and time;

(B) where it is to take place; and

(C) if it is anticipated that directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how it is proposed that they should communicate with each other during the meeting.

(3) Notice of a Council meeting must be given to each director, but need not be in writing but must be given 7 clear days before said meeting.

Participation in directors' meetings

14.

(1) Subject to the Articles, directors participate in a directors' meeting, or part of a directors' meeting, when—

(A) the meeting has been called and takes place in accordance with the Articles, and

(B) they can each communicate to the others any information or opinions they have on any particular item of the business of the meeting.

(2) In determining whether directors are participating in a directors' meeting, it is irrelevant where any director is located or how they communicate with each other.

(3) If all the directors participating in a meeting are not in the same place, they may decide that the meeting is to be treated as taking place wherever any of them is.

Quorum for directors' meetings

(1) At a directors' meeting, unless a quorum is participating, no proposal is to be voted on, except a proposal to call another meeting.

(2) The quorum for directors' meetings shall be six directors who are entitled to vote on the business of the meeting in accordance with the Articles.

(3) If the total number of directors for the time being is less than the quorum required, the directors must not take any decision other than a decision—

(A) to appoint further directors, or

(B) to call a general meeting so as to enable the members to appoint further directors.

Chairing of Council meetings

16.

The chair at Council Meetings shall be taken by the Chair or in his absence the Vice-Chair or if neither is present the Members of Council present shall choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting.

Casting vote

17.

(1) If the numbers of votes for and against a proposal are equal, the Chair or other director chairing the meeting has a casting vote.

(2) But this does not apply if, in accordance with the Articles, the Chair or other director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum or voting purposes.

Conflicts of interest

(1) If a proposed decision of the directors is concerned with an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with a company in which a director is interested, that director is not to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum voting or agreement purposes.

(2) But if paragraph (3) applies, a director who is interested in an actual or proposed transaction or arrangement with the company is to be counted as participating in the decision-making process for quorum and voting purposes.

(3) This paragraph applies when—

(A) the company by ordinary resolution disapplies the provision of the Articles which would otherwise prevent a director from being counted as participating in the decision-making process;

(B) the director's interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or

(C) the director's conflict of interest arises from a permitted cause.

(4) For the purposes of this Article, the following are permitted causes—

(A) a guarantee given, or to be given, by or to a director in respect of an obligation incurred by or on behalf of the company or any of its subsidiaries;

(B) subscription, or an agreement to subscribe, for securities of the company or any of its subsidiaries, or to underwrite, sub-underwrite, or guarantee subscription for any such securities; and

(C) arrangements pursuant to which benefit made available to employees and directors or former employees and directors of the company or any of its subsidiaries which do not provide special benefits for directors or former directors.

(5) For the purposes of this Article, references to proposed decisions and decision-making processes include any directors' meeting or part of a directors' meeting.

(6) Subject to paragraph (7), if a question arises at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors as to the right of a director to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes, the question may, before the conclusion of the meeting, be referred to the Chair whose ruling in relation to any director other than the chair is to be final and conclusive.

(7) If any question as to the right to participate in the meeting (or part of the meeting) should arise in respect of the Chair, the question is to be decided by a decision of the directors at that meeting, for which purpose the Chair is not to be counted as participating in the meeting (or that part of the meeting) for voting or quorum purposes.

Records of decisions to be kept

19.

(A) The directors must ensure that the company keeps a record, in writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the directors.

(B) Council shall cause proper minutes to be made of all proceedings of all General Meetings of BSAC and of Council and of committees of Council and every such minute if purported to be signed by the chair of such meeting or by the chair of the next succeeding meeting of the same body shall be sufficient evidence without any further proof of the facts therein stated.

Directors' discretion to make further rules

Subject to the Articles, the directors may make any rule which they think fit about how they take decisions, and about how such rules are to be recorded or communicated to directors.

APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

Methods of appointing directors

21.

(1) Any person who is willing to act as a director, and is permitted by law to do so, may be appointed to be a director—

(A) by ordinary resolution, or

(B) by a decision of the directors.

(2) In any case where, as a result of death, the company has no members and no directors, the personal representatives of the last member to have died have the right, by notice in writing, to appoint a person to be a director.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where 2 or more members die in circumstances rendering it uncertain who was the last to die, a younger member is deemed to have survived an older member.

(A) No person shall be eligible to be an elected Officer or elected member of Council who:

(1) Is under the age of eighteen years.

(2) Is not a voting member of BSAC.

(3) Is a paid employee of BSAC or is a person whose main source of income is derived from BSAC.

(B) There shall be no upper age limit applicable to appointment as a director of BSAC

(A) In advance of any Annual General Meeting at which Officers and Council are to retire pursuant to Article 28, all voting members of BSAC shall be invited in writing to nominate themselves to serve as Officers or as elected members of Council. Such invitation shall be made not later than the accounting reference date to which the accounts to be laid before such Annual General Meeting are to be made up and all such nominations shall be in writing and shall be dispatched so as to be received by the Honorary Secretary at the Office not later than the date falling one month after such accounting reference date. No person may be nominated for more than one position on Council.

(B)(1) The names of all persons so nominated who would be eligible if elected shall be entered on a ballot paper in alphabetical order and not fewer than twenty-eight days before the date fixed for the Annual General Meeting a ballot paper shall be sent out to each Member of BSAC entitled to vote. Ballot papers duly marked shall be returned to the Office or other such place in the United Kingdom as is specified by Council so as to arrive not later than fourteen days prior to the date fixed for the Annual General Meeting.

(2) As an alternative to a postal ballot return members may make the return of the ballot forms by secure electronic means as prescribed by Council.

(C) The candidates successful in the ballot shall be announced at the meeting and shall be Members of Council from the end of that meeting.

24.

In the absence of competing candidates for any Office or membership of Council unopposed qualified candidates shall be deemed to have been elected as if by ballot.

25.

(A) No person may be elected to hold more than one Office at any one time.

(B) Any retiring Officer or member of Council may stand for and be elected to Council and in the case of an Officer to the same Office from which he or she is retiring Provided That:

(1) no individual may hold the same Office for a continuous period in excess of six years (or, if longer, the period from the date of his appointment until the date of the sixth Annual General Meeting thereafter) provided that no period during which an individual serves as an Officer other than as a result of election in accordance with these Articles shall count towards any period of continuous holding of an Office for the purposes of this Article 25(B)(1); and

(2) no individual elected as a member of Council (other than a non voting member) may serve as a member of Council (whether or not an Officer) for a continuous period in excess of nine years (or, if longer, the period from the date of such election until the date of the ninth Annual General Meeting thereafter) provided that no period during which an individual serves as a Member of Council other than as a result of election in accordance with these Articles shall count towards any period of continuous service for the purposes of this Article 25(B)(2); and

(3) any individual who retires from the Council having served for the maximum continuous period permitted pursuant to Article 25(B)(2) shall not be eligible for election to the Council (other than as a non voting member) for a period of three years after such retirement (or, if shorter, the period commencing on the date of such retirement and expiring on the date of the third Annual General Meeting thereafter) provided that nothing in this Article 25(B)(3) shall prevent Council appointing or co-opting any such individual as a member of Council pursuant to any provision of these Articles.

(C) Save as specified in Article 25(B), retiring members of Council (including Officers) shall not, upon retirement be ineligible for re-election to the Council (or to any Office).

(D) A Council member as defined at Article 4(A)(2) who stands for election as an Officer and is successful is deemed to have retired at the end of the General Meeting at which the results of the ballot for said Officer position is declared and may not, therefore, continue as a general member of Council.

In the event that he is unsuccessful his current position on council remains unchanged subject to the time limits in the preceding clauses.

Council may appoint as a co-opted member of Council any person or any member of any organisation having in the opinion of Council community of interests with BSAC Provided That the number of Co-opted Members so appointed shall never exceed half the number of elected members. Any member so co-opted shall retire from office at the conclusion of the next Annual General Meeting but thereafter may subject to the other requirements of this Article being met again be co-opted to serve on Council.

(A) Officers and other elected members of Council may retire at any time during the term of their appointment by giving written notice to Council of their intention to do so.

(B) In the event of a retirement of an Officer or member of Council other than upon expiry of their term of appointment in accordance with Articles (28), Council will arrange for an election for that position at the next AGM. If the date of the next AGM is such as to leave the position vacant for some time, the Council may:

(1) assign the duties of the retiring Officer or member of Council to another elected member of Council who is willing to take on such duties; or

(2) co-opt onto the Council, to perform the duties of the retiring Officer or member of Council any person who is a Member of BSAC and who is willing to be so co-opted (and any person so co-opted shall be a voting member of Council).

In either case upon such terms as Council may determine.

(C) Any person co-opted as referred to in Article 27(B)(2) shall retire from Council at the Annual General Meeting next following the date of such co-option.

28.

All Officers and all other members of Council referred to in Article 4(A) who are elected at the Annual General Meeting shall serve a period commencing on their date of election and expiring at the third Annual General Meeting following the Annual General Meeting at which they are so elected and shall retire at such later Annual General Meeting.

29.

A member of Council retiring at any meeting shall retain office until the close of the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Termination of director's appointment

30.

A person ceases to be a director as soon as—

(1) that person ceases to be a director by virtue of any provision of the Companies Act 2006 or is prohibited from being a director by law;

(2) a bankruptcy order is made against that person;

(3) a composition is made with that person's creditors generally in satisfaction of that person's debts;

(4) a registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the company stating that that person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a director and may remain so for more than three months;

(5) by reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have;

(6) notification is received by the company from the director that the director is resigning from office, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;

(7) if while being an elected member of Council he ceases to be a voting member of BSAC as defined by Article 35(B);

Directors' remuneration

31.

Unless and until otherwise determined by a General Meeting of BSAC the Members of Council shall not be entitled to any remuneration for their services as such Members.

Directors' expenses

32.

Council may authorise the payment by BSAC of any reasonable and proper out-of-pocket expense incurred by any Member of Council in the performance of his duties in connection with the affairs of BSAC and of reasonable and proper remuneration for necessary technical or professional services to BSAC which would otherwise have required the employment of an independent contractor. These to be disclosed in the annual report to members.

PART 3

MEMBERS

Applications for membership

33.

The present members and such other persons as shall be admitted to membership in accordance with these Articles and no other shall be members of BSAC (subject as hereinafter provided) and shall be entered in the Register of Members.

34.

Except in the case of Honorary or Corporate Members appointed by Council it shall be a condition of membership that the applicant shall have been accepted as a member of one of the Branches of BSAC or accepted as a member via BSAC Direct and shall have paid to BSAC the subscription appropriate to the applicant's class of Membership. A member may transfer to any other Branch that is able and willing to accept him and may be a member of more than one Branch.

35.

(1) The classes of membership shall be as determined by Council from time to time under the authority given in Article 7.(A)(7).

(2) Only members who are either Honorary Life Members or Full Diving Members or Associate Members shall be voting members of BSAC. All other members shall be non-voting members of BSAC.

(3) Non-voting members shall have no right to receive notices of or to attend General Meetings of BSAC.

36.

Council may from time to time register an increase in the number of eligible members.

37.

Council shall be entitled to elect (by a 2:1 majority) Honorary Life Members with such qualifications and such privileges and subject to such limitations as Council shall from time to time determine, provided that the number of such members shall not exceed one per cent of the total membership.

38.

Every application for membership shall be in the form and accompanied by such information concerning the applicant as Council may require together with an undertaking that if accepted the applicant shall conform with these Articles and such application shall be considered and acceptance be determined by Council or a Branch committee (as the case may be).

39.

All members shall pay to BSAC on being accepted to membership such initial and thereafter such annual or other periodical subscriptions as shall be established from time to time by Council Provided That all subscriptions shall be payable at such time in such manner and in respect of such period as Council shall determine.

Termination and Suspension of membership

40.

Council may at any time require any member to give to Council orally at a meeting of Council or in writing particulars or explanations in regard to any act alleged to have been done or omitted to be done by such member which in the opinion of Council constitutes a breach of such member's obligations under these Articles or is calculated to be prejudicial to the interests of BSAC or its members collectively. Where such particulars or explanations are required in writing Council shall permit such member and any witnesses he may call to be heard at a meeting of Council. Any requisition under this Article shall be made by notice in writing accompanied by a copy of this and the next following Article to the member in question and shall specify the date being not less than seven days from the date of notice within which such member is required to comply therewith by attendance at a meeting of Council or by an explanation in writing as the case may be.

41.

(A) Any member may be excluded from BSAC by resolution of Council by a two thirds majority vote at a meeting of council. Provided That no member shall be excluded from BSAC unless the member in question has first been required by Council to give particulars and explanations of any acts alleged to have been done or omitted by such member in accordance with the provisions of the last foregoing Article and Provided That any Officer or Member of Council so excluded or required to resign from Council shall if he so wishes be permitted to address the next following Annual General Meeting in the same regard.

(B) No person who has been excluded from BSAC by virtue of Article 41(A) shall on any application for membership be re-admitted as a member except by resolution of Council by a two-thirds majority.

(C) Any member may have their membership of BSAC suspended by a resolution of Council passed by a two thirds majority vote, or by a resolution of any committee established by Council for the purpose of considering disciplinary matters (the Disciplinary Committee).

(D) In the event that a member has his membership suspended, then for so long as that member's membership is suspended:

(1) notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles unless Council resolves otherwise, that member shall not have the right to receive notice of, or attend, speak or vote at, any general meeting of the company, or any right to receive or vote on any written resolution of the Company;

(2) if that member is a member of Council, he or she shall not be entitled to notice of, or to attend, speak at, or vote at any meeting of Council; and

(3) that member shall abide by any and all directions or restrictions that are imposed on that member from time to time by Council or the Disciplinary Committee as the case may be.

(E) Any suspension of membership may be revoked by a resolution passed by Council by a two thirds majority vote, or by a resolution of the Disciplinary Committee, provided that Council or the Disciplinary Committee may impose any conditions on the revocation of the suspension of membership as they see fit.

42.

A member shall immediately cease to be a member upon the happening of any one of the events following namely:

- (A) If he shall not pay within one month any subscriptions due.
- (B) If he shall be excluded from BSAC under the provisions of Article 41.

- (D) Membership is not transferable

General membership matters

43.

A register shall be kept by BSAC containing the names and addresses of all the members together with such other particulars as may be required by the Act.

44.

Any member who for any cause whatsoever shall cease to be a member or shall have their membership suspended under Article 41 shall have no claim whatsoever upon BSAC or the undertaking or assets thereof and shall not be entitled to be repaid any part of the subscriptions paid by such member to BSAC unless Council or the Disciplinary Committee in their absolute discretion shall otherwise determine but such member notwithstanding that he has ceased to be a member or has had their membership suspended shall remain liable for and shall pay to BSAC all the moneys which at the time when he ceased to be a member, or was suspended as a member, may have been due from him to BSAC under any of the provisions of these Articles or which may become payable by him by virtue of his liability under these Articles.

45.

Any member who for any cause whatsoever shall cease to be a member or shall have their membership suspended shall immediately discontinue the use of any device of BSAC printed or impressed on any document or other material or any other indication of membership of BSAC and shall not make any use of the name or purport to use the authority of BSAC and shall forthwith return to the Honorary Secretary any property of BSAC then in his possession.

ORGANISATION OF GENERAL MEETINGS

Attendance and speaking at general meetings

46.

(1) A person is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

(2) A person is able to exercise the right to vote at a general meeting when—

(A) that person is able to vote, during the meeting, on resolutions put to the vote at the meeting, and

(B) that person's vote can be taken into account in determining whether or not such resolutions are passed at the same time as the votes of all the other persons attending the meeting.

(3) The directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it.

(4) In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other.

(5) Two or more persons who are not in the same place as each other attend a general meeting if their circumstances are such that if they have (or were to have) rights to speak and vote at that meeting, they are (or would be) able to exercise them.

General Meetings

47.

(A) Every year BSAC shall within six months of the end of the Accounting Reference Period hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting (in addition to any other meetings in that year) which shall be held at such time and place as Council shall appoint. All General Meetings other than Annual General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.

(B) Not more than 15 months shall elapse between successive Annual General Meetings.

(A) Council may call an Extraordinary General Meeting whenever it shall think fit and shall do so on a requisition as provided for by Article 48(B).

(B) Council shall within twenty-one days after receiving a requisition in writing to do so signed by at least 300 eligible voting Members and giving the reason therefor proceed to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting. Such meeting shall be arranged for a date not later than three months after the date of such requisition.

49.

Subject to the provisions of the Act no Member shall be entitled to bring any special business (as defined in Article 53) before any General Meeting unless he shall have given notice in writing of such special business to the Honorary Secretary so as to be received by him at the Office:

(A) in the case of an Annual General Meeting not later than the date specified in the call for nominations and motions, as specified by Council, or not less than thirty days, whichever is greater

(B) in the case of an Extraordinary General Meeting not less than five days before the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting;

and in any such case the Honorary Secretary shall in the notice convening the General Meeting at which such special business is to be considered give notice of such special business to all persons for the time being entitled under these Articles to receive notice of General Meetings.

50.

Advance notice shall be given in the following manner (exclusive both of the day on which the notice is served or deemed to be served and of the date of the meeting):

(A) in the case of an Annual General Meeting at least sixty days before the Annual General Meeting;

(B) in the case of an Extraordinary General Meeting at least fourteen days before the Extraordinary General Meeting;

specifying the place the day and the hour of the Meeting and in case of special business the general nature of such business to voting members and such other persons (including the auditors) as are for the time being entitled under the Act or under these Articles to receive notice of General Meetings Provided That with the written consent of the voting members in accordance with the provisions of the Act a meeting may be convened on such shorter notice and in such manner as such members may think fit. The accidental omission to give notice to, or the non-receipt of such notice by any person entitled to receive the same shall not invalidate the proceedings at any General Meeting.

(A) The Honorary Secretary shall accept motions from Council Branch committees and voting members. Motions submitted by a Branch committee shall be accompanied by extracts from minutes of the Branch General Meeting at which it was resolved that they be put forward.

Motions submitted by a voting member shall be seconded by at least four voting members.

(B) Motions shall be submitted in writing, subject to Article 49, to the Honorary Secretary at the Office so as to be received by him:

(C) No motion presented in accordance with this Article shall be accepted by the Honorary Secretary if the same motion or a substantially similar motion has been defeated since the preceding Annual General Meeting.

52.

The business referred to hereunder shall be transacted at an Annual General Meeting.

(A) The presentation of the minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting and of any Extraordinary General Meeting held since.

(B) The appointment of tellers for any poll or show of hands which may be required.

(C) The Chair's opening address to the members.

(D) Presentation of annual report and questions to.

(E) Q&A opportunity for members to Council, National Diving Officer (as defined at Article 83(D) and HQ representatives.

(F) Where appropriate, declaration of the results of the election for the Officers and other members of the Council for the ensuing year.

(G) The appointment of auditors for the ensuing year and the fixing of their remuneration

(H) The consideration of motions of which due notice has been given.

(I) Such other business (without prejudice to the provisions of the Act) as the Chair may allow Provided That this shall not empower the Chair to treat as ordinary business under this Article business which would otherwise fall to be treated as special business.

53.

All business shall be deemed to be special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting and all that business (save such as is specified in Article 52 hereof) which is transacted at an Annual General Meeting.

54.

Every notice convening a General Meeting shall comply with the provisions of the Act as to the giving of information to Members in relation to their right to appoint proxies and notices of and other communications relating to General Meetings which any Member is entitled to receive shall be sent to all Members and to the Auditors.

Quorum for general meetings and adjournment

55.

(A) No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting (other than the appointment of a chair, if necessary, in accordance with Article 57(1)) unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as herein otherwise provided the number of members being a quorum shall be:

- (1) in the case of an Annual General Meeting fifteen voting members in person;
- (2) in the case of an Extraordinary General Meeting fifty voting members in person.

(B) If within half an hour from the time appointed for the General Meeting a quorum is not present the meeting if convened upon the requisition of Members shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to such other day and at such other time and place as Council may determine and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall be a quorum.

56.

(1) The chair of the meeting may adjourn a general meeting at which a quorum is present if—

(A) the meeting consents to an adjournment, or

(B) it appears to the chair of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

(2) The chair of the meeting must adjourn a general meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

(3) When adjourning a general meeting, the chair of the meeting must—

(A) either specify the time and place to which it is adjourned or state that it is to continue at a time and place to be fixed by the directors, and

(B) have regard to any directions as to the time and place of any adjournment which have been given by the meeting.

(4) If the continuation of an adjourned meeting is to take place more than 14 days after it was adjourned, the company must give at least 7 clear days' notice of it (that is, excluding the day of the adjourned meeting and the day on which the notice is given) –

(A) to the same persons to whom notice of the company's general meetings is required to be given, and

(B) containing the same information which such notice is required to contain.

(5) No business may be transacted at an adjourned general meeting which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

Chairing general meetings

57.

(1) The Chair of BSAC or in his absence the Vice -Chair shall preside as the chair of every General Meeting but if there be no such Chair or Vice-Chair or if at any meeting neither shall be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same or shall be unwilling to preside the Members present and entitled to vote shall choose some member of the Council or, if no member of the Council be present or if all the members of the Council present decline to take the chair, they shall choose some other member of BSAC who shall be present to preside. No business shall be discussed or transacted at any General Meeting whilst the chair is vacant except for the election of a chair.

(2) The person chairing a meeting in accordance with this Article is referred to as "the chair of the meeting".

Attendance and speaking by non-members

58.

The Chair of the meeting may permit other persons who are not members of BSAC to attend and speak at a General Meeting.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

Voting: general

59.

Article 35(B) defines which members shall be entitled to vote at General Meetings.

60.

(A) A member of unsound mind or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in mental health may vote whether on a show of hands or on a poll by his committee receiver curator bonis or other person in the nature of a committee receiver or curator bonis appointed by that court and any such committee receiver curator bonis or other person may on a poll vote by proxy.

(B) No member shall be entitled to vote at any General Meeting unless all moneys presently payable by him to BSAC have been paid. An original copy of a valid membership receipt from a branch shall be sufficient evidence that subscriptions have been paid.

(C) On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

(D) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or of his attorney duly authorised in writing or if the appointer is a corporation either under seal or under the hand of an Officer or attorney duly authorised. A proxy need not be a member of BSAC. The instrument appointing a proxy may be in the form of a secure electronic means as prescribed by Council.

(E) The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority if any under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the registered office or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote or in the case of a poll not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.

(F) An instrument appointing a proxy shall include the information defined in Article 64 as near thereto as circumstances permit.

(G) A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed Provided That no intimation in writing of such death insanity or revocation as aforesaid shall have been received by BSAC at the registered office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

(H) A member present only by proxy may vote on a show of hands. A proxy need not be a member.

61.

In the case of an equality of votes the Chair of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

62.

(A) At any General Meeting a motion or resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by a poll.

(B) A poll shall be taken in such manner as the Chair of the meeting directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was taken.

Errors and disputes

63.

(1) No objection may be raised to the qualification of any person voting at a general meeting except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered, and every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid.

(2) Any such objection must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.

Content of proxy notices

64.

(1) Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which—

(A) states the name and membership number of the member appointing the proxy;

(B) identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

(C) is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and

(D) is delivered to the company in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

(2) The company may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

(3) Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

(4) Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as—

(A) allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting, and

(B) appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

Delivery of proxy notices

65.

(1) A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the company by or on behalf of that person.

(2) An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the company a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

(3) A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

(4) If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

Amendments to resolutions

66.

(1) An ordinary resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution if—

(A) notice of the proposed amendment is given to the company in writing by a person entitled to vote at the general meeting at which it is to be proposed not less than 48 hours before the meeting is to take place (or such later time as the chair of the meeting may determine), and

(B) the proposed amendment does not, in the reasonable opinion of the chair of the meeting, materially alter the scope of the resolution.

- (2) A special resolution to be proposed at a general meeting may be amended by ordinary resolution, if—
- (A) the chair of the meeting proposes the amendment at the general meeting at which the resolution is to be proposed, and
- (B) the amendment does not go beyond what is necessary to correct a grammatical or other non-substantive error in the resolution.
- (3) If the chair of the meeting, acting in good faith, wrongly decides that an amendment to a resolution is out of order, the chair's error does not invalidate the vote on that resolution.

PART 4

ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS

Means of communication to be used

67.

- (1) Subject to the Articles, anything sent or supplied by or to the company under the Articles may be sent or supplied in any way in which the Companies Act 2006 provides for documents or information which are authorised or required by any provision of that Act to be sent or supplied by or to the company.
- (2) Subject to the Articles, any notice or document to be sent or supplied to a director in connection with the taking of decisions by directors may also be sent or supplied by the means by which that director has asked to be sent or supplied with such notices or documents for the time being.
- (3) A director may agree with the company that notices or documents sent to that director in a particular way are to be deemed to have been received within a specified time of their being sent, and for the specified time to be less than 48 hours.

Company seals

- (1) Any common seal may only be used by the authority of Council.
- (2) The directors may decide by what means and in what form any common seal is to be used.
- (3) Unless otherwise decided by Council, if the company seal is affixed to a document, the document must also be signed by the Secretary and at least two other elected members of Council

(B) The provisions of Articles 87 to 89 below shall have no application to Youth Branches or Youth Members save as expressly decreed by Council.

Activities

87.

(A) A member of any Branch may participate in the activities of any other Branch that is able and willing to accept him.

(B) Activities of BSAC or of Branches shall be undertaken only with the authority of Council or of a Branch committee as appropriate. Activities involving diving shall require the appointment by Council or Branch committee, as appropriate, of a person to control and supervise that activity.

(C) To secure safety and discipline on diving expeditions the Expedition Leader may suspend for the duration of the expedition any member who fails to obey orders given by such leader for the said purpose. All such suspensions shall be promptly reported to the Branch Committee.

(D) No member may take part in any activity unless they have complied with the requirements for medical examination as laid down by Council from time to time.

(E) All boats (other than hand propelled watercraft) used by a Branch or by any member of the Club on Branch or Club activities must be insured for Third Party risks with a minimum indemnity limit of an amount stipulated by Council from time to time.

Subscriptions

(A) Membership other than Honorary Life Membership conferred by Council shall entail the payment of a subscription at the time of joining and annually thereafter. The subscription shall consist of a portion due to BSAC and an additional levy retained by the Branch. If a Branch committee wishes to appoint a person to honorary membership of the Branch it shall on his behalf pay to BSAC that portion of the subscription appropriate to his class of membership which is due to BSAC.

(B) Subscriptions due to BSAC shall be collected by either BSAC or the Branch as determined by Council from time to time. A Branch committee may also in its discretion impose a levy reasonably appropriate to the circumstances of a particular Branch; such levy being retained by the Branch for its own purposes. If such levy is collected by BSAC it shall be remitted to the Branch within 30 days of receipt at BSAC.

(C) Where a member belongs to more than one Branch at the same time the portion of the subscription due to BSAC shall be payable in respect of one of the Branches only but each Branch shall be entitled to require its own levy from such a member.

(D) Alterations to the portion of the initial and annual subscription that is to be paid to BSAC shall be published by Council. The new rates shall not come into effect until one month after the publication date announcing the new rates. A statement of correct rates will be made to Branch treasurers and membership secretaries.

Payment of Subscriptions

(A) Subscriptions shall be payable on an annual basis in a manner as prescribed by Council from time to time. Branch committees shall be responsible for issuing a receipt to members in a form prescribed by Council in respect of member's initial and annual subscriptions.
